UNESCO-APEID Conference

ETANIA schools
Sabah, Borneo. East Malaysia

Marginalisation and Illiteracy among Indonesian Migrant Workers' Children
Meet Risman

Age: 19
Race: Indonesian
Status: Stateless
Literacy: 0
Math: Grade 1
Work: Oil palm estate
Self esteem: Minimal
Guts: 100%

Risman’s class One

Learning to Write
Solid education for nationals – a big hole for foreigners

Mending the Hole in the Wall

Education
MENDULONG Community Development Centre
(Pusat Pembangunan Masyarakat MENDULONG)
CSR Program at Arus Sawit Estate. Borneo
What is ProVisi Education doing?
The Model - Part One

• Reading
• Indonesian curriculum
• Values program
• Field trips/Inter-school activities
• Teacher Training
• Local, overseas consultants
• Parent/Community Involvement
• Partners: companies/estates
What Do Our Children Need? Accessibility

Academic

- A contextual based curriculum
- Qualifications > higher learning
- Meaning in Learning
- Life-long learning skills (eg problem solving)

Critical Developmental areas

- Values
- Dignity
- Courage
- Hope

WHO AM I?
Teacher Training Programs – International, Local consultants
Reading is the Key

ILLITERACY

X
Where is ETANIA taking our children?
The Model Part 2: Empowerment, Social Entrepreneurship
Thank you
From Etania Schools' Community, Borneo & ProVisi Education, Jakarta

Kathryn Anne Rivai
kathryn_rivai@yahoo.com +60198511047
www.provisieducation.com