5. Pedagogy of Love

Love

Education

Kaizen of Love
Love

Love for self
Love for family
Love for others
Love for a lover
Love for one’s country
Material love
Spiritual love
Plutonic love
People are not only thinking or willing creatures but loving creatures.
Kant

Love, faith, hope, humility and critical thinking are the pillars of a democratic dialogue.
Paulo Frere

A True revolutionary is motivated by great feelings of love.
Che Guevara
Education and teaching that aims at bringing out personalities cannot succeed without a loving attitude.
Martti Haavio (1948).

The perfect knowledge is only possible through love.
Erich Fromm (1994)

It is impossible to teach without the courage of love, the courage to fail and still get up.
Thomas Merton in “Seven Stores Mountain”
Kaizen of Love

Love for the learner
Love for the content
Love for the school
Love for colleagues
Love for administrators

Kaizen = TQM
Pedagogical love is to aim at the discovery of pupils’ strengths and interests and act, based on these, to strengthen students’ self-esteem and self-image as active learners.
Pedagogical love in learning emerges through:
- Teacher’s Attitude
- Teacher’s Emotions
- Teachers Actions
But
When a teacher cares
It shows in the attitude
When a teacher is concerned
It shows in the emotions
When a teacher loves
It shows in the actions
Circle of Pedagogical Love

Caring Attitude

Concerned Emotions

Loving Actions
Manifestation of love

Respect, Empathy, self esteem, emotion, caring, values, humility, responsibility, encouraging attitude, passion, courage, faith, hope

Thus it can be safely said that “The Heart of Education is the Education of the Heart”
Teachers who hold a more humanistic view for the purpose of education often experience stress because the meaning they assign to education differs greatly from the meaning assigned by their institution or policy makers.
Non-Love Pedagogists Beware!
Thank You
