Promoting intercultural dialogue and a culture of peace in Southeast Asia through shared histories
Second Expert Meeting
Bangkok, 16-17 September 2014

DRAFT AGENDA
(25 August 2014)

MEETING OBJECTIVES
- To identify concrete framework for shared Southeast Asian history teaching/learning materials: priority themes, scope and oversight mechanisms

Day 1: Tuesday 16 September 2014

8.30 Registration

9.00-10.00 Opening Session: The role of history in promoting intercultural dialogue and a culture of peace in Southeast Asia
  - Opening remarks by UNESCO, APCEIU, SEAMEO
  - Overview of the programme & objectives
  - Introduction of participants
  - Recap from the first expert meeting

10.00-10.30 Coffee break

10.30-12.00 Session 2: Sharing of process and methodologies used in other projects
  - UNESCO Shared History project (15 minutes)
  - SEAMEO-CHAT Southeast Asian History Curriculum Framework (2003) (10 minutes)
  - ASEAN Curriculum Sourcebook (2012) (15 minutes)
  - Q&A and discussion (and document analysis?) (20 – 30 minutes)

12.00-13.00 Lunch

13.00-14.30 Session 3: Identifying core themes for content of the teaching/learning materials
  - Recap of the conclusions of the first meeting on this specific issue (10 minutes)
  - Discussion 1: What are the first themes that come to your mind when it comes to teaching shared South-East Asia histories? Why?

14.30-15.00 Coffee break
15.00-16.00 Group Work: evaluation of proposed themes
Discussion on pros and cons, evaluation of the proposed themes and preliminary prioritization

16.00-16.30 Presentations of Group Work

16.30-17.00 Discussion

17.00 End of Day 1

18.30-20.00 Welcome Dinner at the Marriott
Day 2: Wednesday 17 September 2014

9.00- 10.15
Session 3: Identifying core themes for content of the teaching/learning materials (con’d)
- Recap on Discussion 2
- Finalization of the list of priority themes (6-8 themes)

10.15- 10.30
☕️ Coffee break ☕️

10.30- 12.00
- Recap from first expert meeting
- Discussion 3: How do we practically develop these priority themes into teaching and learning materials, with a view to promote peace and mutual understanding?

12.00- 13.00
🍱 Lunch 🍽️

13.00- 14.00
Session 4: Identifying scope for developing teaching/learning materials
- Recap from first expert meeting
- Discussion 4:
  - Target audience (primary, lower secondary, upper secondary)
  - Customized material to supplement existing national material vs. stand-alone regional package

14.00- 15.00
Session 5: TORs for quality control and technical oversight mechanisms
Presentation of draft mechanisms and discussions on:
- Role of and selection criteria for members of Technical Advisory Committee
- Role of and selection criteria for content developers
- Evaluation and feedback mechanisms

15.00- 15.30
☕️ Coffee break ☕️

15.30- 16.30
Session 6: Finalization of points of agreement and next steps

16.30
Concluding Session