Balik Pulau
the island behind the hills
Southeast District
17,000 hectares
125,000 people
58% Malay, 37% Chinese, 5% Indian
Ever-in-demand products: durian, nutmeg & clove
Balik Pulau town can be approached by 2 ways

Kongsi approach

Relau approach
Roundabout – Koh Seang Tatt Monument Long extended houses used by Chinese laborers working on clove, nutmeg & rubber plantation
Government quarters, old district office & old Chinese shop house
Traders
Roman Catholic Church - 1854
3 Catholic Schools
Mariamman Temple

served the Indian labourers in 1880’s
Paddy fields of Titi Teras
Balik Pulau Welcomes You!