UNESCO
Asia-Pacific Awards for Cultural Heritage Conservation
2013
About the Awards

Throughout Asia and the Pacific, cultural heritage sites are under threat. As heritage buildings and properties are largely in private ownership, the role of private individuals and institutions in protecting these vulnerable sites is paramount.

Recognizing this, UNESCO seeks to encourage private sector involvement and public-private collaboration in conserving the region’s cultural heritage for the benefit of current and future generations.

The UNESCO Asia-Pacific Awards for Cultural Heritage Conservation recognize excellent achievement in successfully conserving or restoring heritage buildings and properties in the region by the private sector or by public-private initiatives.

In 2005, UNESCO launched the Jury Commendation for Innovation. The Jury Commendation recognizes newly-built structures which demonstrate outstanding architectural design that is well-integrated into historic contexts.

Since 2000, UNESCO has received 469 entries from 24 countries. A total of 148 projects have received Awards for exemplary conservation efforts, while 8 projects have received the Jury Commendation for Innovation.

The Award winners span a wide range of conservation projects from private residences to palace complexes. Over the years, the projects illustrate the increasing momentum and level of conservation in Asia and the Pacific.

The Awards set technical and social benchmarks for cultural heritage conservation in the region. Award-winning projects serve as catalysts and a source of inspiration for private individuals and institutions in conserving cultural heritage throughout the region.

UNESCO’s Mission

The United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO) is at the vanguard of international efforts to safeguard cultural heritage.

UNESCO is the only United Nations agency with a mandate in cultural heritage.

UNESCO recognizes that cultural heritage in its rich diversity has intrinsic value for sustainable development, social cohesion and peace. As a source of identity, innovation and creativity, it constitutes our collective cultural memory and the foundation upon which communities can construct their future.

In Asia and the Pacific, UNESCO promotes the stewardship of cultural heritage in all its manifestations, including built heritage. UNESCO works closely with governments and civil society in protecting the region’s cultural heritage through activities at all levels.

Deadline for Submission

Submission deadline for the 2013 UNESCO Asia-Pacific Awards for Cultural Heritage Conservation is 31 March 2013.

2012 Award of Excellence
Mbaru Niang, Wae Rebo Village, Flores Island, East Nusa Tenggara, Indonesia
“The community-led rebuilding project, initiated by the voluntary effort of Indonesia’s Rumah Asuh Foundation, is exceptional for the way that it successfully engaged with a broad range of conservation issues at the local level.”

2012 Award of Distinction
Sethna Buildings in Wadia Street, Mumbai, India
“The repair and renovation of the early 20th century residential buildings in Wadia Street, represents an outstanding model for protecting and extending the use and life of historically-significant social housing under threat of demolition from urban renewal and development.”

Historic Water System of Hampi, Vitthala Precinct, Hampi, Karnataka, India
“The holistic approach to historic site interpretation and the rehabilitation of a culturally significant water system for contemporary use are features that set this project apart. The fact that this occurs within a living cultural landscape make it exemplary and standard-setting.”

2012 Award of Merit
Zhizhusi Complex, Beijing, China
“The comprehensive restoration of the architecturally significant late 17th century Zhizhusi temple complex has enabled the rich layers of its history to be revealed, enhanced and celebrated.”

Chandramauleshwar Temple, Anegundi Village, Hampi, Karnataka, India
“The stabilization work carried out at the ruined site of the 15th century Chandramauleshwar Temple in Hampi sets a benchmark for conservation practice at archaeological sites in India.”

Khilingrong Mosque, Shigar, Gilgit-Baltistan, Pakistan
“Constructed four centuries ago, Khilingrong Mosque was in an advanced state of deterioration when the Aga Khan Cultural Service of Pakistan began much needed restoration work. Not only has the project reinstated the religious function of the building, it has also reinvigorated an important public space for day-to-day social interactions among the community.”

2012 Honourable Mention
William Street Precinct, Perth, Western Australia, Australia
“The revitalization of the heritage-listed William Street Precinct in Perth has transformed an area where a majority of the buildings had either been neglected or under-utilized.”

Har Raj Ji Mahal, Jaisalmer Fort, Rajasthan, India
“Responding to the threat posed by the progressive decay of the fabled 17th century Har Raj Ji Mahal, which had suffered from the ravages of time in an unforgiving desert environment, the project has heroically rescued and restored the oldest and most majestic palace of the imposing Jaisalmer Fort.”

2012 Jury Commendation Winner
Reading Room for the Portuguese School of Macau, Macao SAR, China
“Inserted into the courtyard of the Portuguese School of Macau, the new Reading Room has provided an understated contemporary addition to this aesthetically noteworthy 1963 modernist complex.”

REGULATIONS

Article 1 – Objective

1.1 The 2013 UNESCO Asia-Pacific Awards for Cultural Heritage Conservation ("the Awards") recognize the achievement of the private sector and public-private initiatives in successfully conserving or restoring structures, places and properties of heritage value in the region.

Article 2 – Award and Frequency

2.1 The Awards, which are established for an indeterminate period, shall be awarded on an annual basis.

2.2 The Awards shall consist of a number of winners to be determined by the Jury in the following categories:

a. Award of Excellence, which demonstrates exceptional achievement in all criteria and has major catalytic impact at the national or regional level;

b. Award of Distinction, which demonstrates outstanding achievement in all criteria and has significant impact at the national or regional level;

c. Award of Merit, which demonstrates superior achievement in all criteria;

d. Honourable Mention, which demonstrates noteworthy achievement in selected criteria.

2.3 Each Award winner will receive one bronze plaque.

2.4 Certificates of recognition will be presented to all parties included on the entry form.

2.5 The format and number of the Awards may be varied from time to time at the discretion of UNESCO and the Jury.

2.6 The Awards will be made out in the name stated on the project entry form.

Article 3 – Eligibility for the Awards

3.1 To be considered for the Awards, the conserved or restored heritage structure, place or property must be over 50 years old. For settlements and landscapes, the essential historic elements must be more than 50 years old.

3.2 The following are eligible for consideration: residential, commercial and institutional buildings; religious properties; urban and rural settlements/historic towns and villages; archaeological heritage; cultural landscapes, parks and gardens; military properties; modern heritage; agricultural, industrial and technological properties; burial monuments and sites; cultural routes; vernacular architecture; and symbolic properties and memorials.

3.3 The project must be the result of private sector initiative or public-private partnership. The involvement of private individuals or organizations in terms of ownership, tenancy, financing or other contributions to the project should be clear. Projects which are financed, owned and undertaken wholly by government entities are not eligible.

3.4 The work must have been completed within the preceding 10 years at the time of submission. For buildings with a new use, the project must also have been occupied or put to viable use for at least one year at the time of submission.

3.5 Entries which have been previously submitted will not be eligible for resubmission unless invited to do so by the Jury, or unless substantial additional restoration has been carried out since the previous submission.
Article 4 – Criteria for the Awards

4.1 The Awards recipients will have conclusively demonstrated excellence in:

Understanding the Place
- a. how well the conservation/restoration work articulates the property's heritage values in order to convey the spirit of place;
- b. how well the conservation/restoration work interprets the property's cultural, social, historical and architectural significance;
- c. appropriate use or adaptation of the property;

Technical Achievement
- d. the understanding of the technical issues of conservation/restoration in interpreting the property’s significance;
- e. the use and quality control of appropriate building, artisan and conservation techniques;
- f. the use of appropriate materials;
- g. how well any added elements or creative technical solutions respect the character and inherent spatial quality of the property;

Social and Policy Impact
- h. the overall complexity, sensitivity and technical consistency of the project;
- i. the on-going socio-economic viability and relevance of the project, and provision for its future use and maintenance;
- j. the manner in which the process and the final product contribute to the surrounding environment and the local community's cultural and historical continuum; and
- k. the influence of the project on conservation practice and policy locally, nationally, regionally or internationally.

Article 5 – Selection Process and Jury

5.1 The Awards recipients shall be selected on the proposal of an internal Jury.

5.2 The Jury shall be composed of:
- a. 1 representative from UNESCO, and
- b. 8-10 international conservation experts renowned for their knowledge of conservation in the Asia-Pacific region.

5.3 UNESCO shall appoint the Jury for the full period of the Awards process.

Article 6 – Conditions of Entry

6.1 Entries may be submitted by the registered owner, registered lessee, or conservation consultant, architect or designer, any of whom would have had to be involved in the process, preferably throughout the entire project duration.

6.2 Each entry must be submitted to UNESCO before 31 March 2013.

6.3 Submission of an entry will be taken to imply granting UNESCO the rights to use, publish, display or communicate all materials and particulars of the successful schemes, without charge to UNESCO.

6.4 The wording of plaques and certificates will be based strictly on the details given on the entry form.

6.5 All submitting persons or firms will be responsible for delivery of their respective entries. Entry materials will not be returned.

6.6 One or more entries may be submitted by the same individual or institution.

6.7 The use of the UNESCO logo for any purposes related to the Awards requires prior written authorization from UNESCO.
