Asia Pacific Centre of Education for International Understanding
1. Education for International Understanding (EIU)

2. Asia-Pacific Centre of Education for International Understanding (APCEIU)

3. Major APCEIU Activities
The UN charter set forth as its mission the enabling of all human beings on earth to live together in societies based on tolerance and harmony.

The Founding Charter of UNESCO declared the only way to establish world peace and human prosperity is to teach mutual understanding, respect, freedom, justice, peace and the value of human dignity.

Culture of Peace
1953 UNESCO’s Associated Schools Project Network (ASPnet) was founded to promote peace and international co-operation through education.

1993 The International Commission on Education for the Twenty-first Century was formally established.

EIU CONCEPTUAL FRAMEWORK

Four pillars of education throughout life

- Learning to Know
- Learning to Do
- Learning to Be
- Learning to Live Together

Jacques Delors (1996), Chair, UNESCO International Commission on Education for the Twenty-first Century
Regional Institute for Education for International Understanding (EIU)

Work with 46 UNESCO Member States, academia and civil society of Asia and the Pacific region

Mandated towards developing in-depth programmes in relevant areas of EIU towards a Culture of Peace
APCEIU MANDATES

• Strengthen national and regional capacities in EIU for a Culture of Peace

• Encourage and facilitate collaborative links between Asia-Pacific initiatives and other regional, international and global efforts in Education

• Implement research and development of the philosophy, teaching methods and curriculum of EIU

• Organize training workshops and seminars

• Produce and disseminate teaching materials and other publications
Korean Government proposed the establishment of APCEIU as the first regional organization of its kind at the 29th UNESCO General Conference (1997)

The 30th UNESCO General Conference (1999) adopted the resolution on the establishment of APCEIU

APCEIU was established in August 2000 with an agreement between the Government of Republic of Korea and UNESCO as UNESCO Category II Centre
1. Promotion of EIU towards a Culture of Peace

“Peace Movement and Education in Asia-Pacific Conflict Zones”, 20-22 November 2001

“Inter-religious Dialogue for Peace and Reconciliation in the Asia-Pacific Region”, 4-6 December 2002

“Educating for Peace in Divided Societies”, 4-10 August 2003

“Partnerships for Peace and Sustainability in Asia and the Pacific”, 25-27 August 2005

A Journal of EIU
To encourage the scholastic discourse on the issue and to incorporate the regional studies from the Asian perspective

EIU Annual Conference on a Culture of Peace
MAJOR APCEIU ACTIVITIES

2. EIU Capacity Building of the Member States in Asia-Pacific Region

- Expert Workshop
- Regional Teachers Training Workshop
- Sub-regional Training of Trainers Workshop
- National Teacher Training Workshop
National Training in Korea

- Teachers Training Workshop
- Training Workshop for Educational Administrators
- EIU Teachers Association
2. EIU Capacity Building of the Member States in Asia-Pacific Region
MAJOR APCEIU ACTIVITIES

3. Dissemination of Information on EIU
PEACE IN MIND
ACTION FOR PEACE
PEACE FOR ALL
Thank you!

www.unescoapceiu.org