What is a PLN?
GET CONNECTED

All PLNs start with a single connection:
Shelly S Terrell is an education activist, thought-provoker, and international speaker. She is also the VP of Educator Outreach for Parentella and Social Media Community Manager for The Consultants. She is also the co-organizer and co-creator of the award nominated educational projects, Edtech, The Reform Symposium E-Conference and the Virtual Round Table conference. The New York Times learning blog has included her on its list of the top 76 educators to follow on Twitter and recently she has been listed as one of the Top 20 most influential tweeters in eLearning, training and HR. Visit her education blog, Teacher Rehab etc., for resources for effective technology integration. In 2012 find her book, The 30 Goals Challenge for Educators published by Eye on Education, participate with over 6000 other educators worldwide in the online completion of these goals.

Tonight I offer open discussion about learning English challenges. If you would like to join our discussion, you are welcome.

Education Land
I'm an EFL teacher from Saudi Arabia and I am very passionate about teaching. I think education is the key to solving many of the problems in today's world and became a teacher because I truly believe teachers can make a difference in students' lives. Because of that I take teaching very seriously. Besides teaching my other passions are books especially which are dealing with education and teaching...

This is a ning site dedicated to the support of a Personal Learning Network for Educators.

Podcast: Listen to some leading voices in education transformation!

Check out our podcast with some of the best voices in education transformation! We begin with Chris Lehmann and soon we will be adding Alfie Kohn, Howard Rheingold, and Diane Ravitch to the mix. Subscribe in iTunes or any platform to keep updated! You can also embed the player in your own website or download it!
WELCOME!

Welcome to Classroom20.com, the social network for those interested in Web 2.0 and Social Media in education. We encourage you to sign up to participate in the great discussions here, to receive event notifications, and to find and connect with colleagues.

Classroom 2.0 is a free, community-supported network. We especially hope that those who are “beginners” will find this a supportive comfortable place to start being part of the digital dialog. Because of spammers, we have to approve all memberships here. While your membership is pending you are still welcome to peruse the site or attend any events!

Once your membership is approved, you can introduce yourself to the whole network by going to the introductory forum message. Please also feel free to explore! Here are some starting tips and a “Tour of Classroom 2.0” Eluminate recording, or you can ask help of a “host.” Thanks so much for being here!

Classroom 2.0 LIVE! - Saturday Shows

There will not be a Classroom 2.0 LIVE session on Saturday, June 25th, 2011 so that attendees can participate in pre-conference ISTE 2011 events. We will be taking the month of July off for a brief hiatus and resume our normal schedule on August 6th, 2011.
What do you want to learn?

Who do you want to connect to?

What is the best tool?

How much time can you invest?

How do you want to learn?
What do I share?
It is no longer enough to do powerful work if no one sees it.

Social media helped me design a KILLER collaborative voicethread project for our kindergarten teachers. http://voicethread.com/

We have our students write blog posts in response to the assigned readings they do in our content course. Then we always respond and try to encourage an ongoing dialogue about their ideas.

I also use Voicethread and Soundcloud with my students for listening activities.

My students really love the comics, especially after they created comics in Bitstrips.
