December 21, 2010 17:25 PM

Muhyiddin Launches Website For National Commission For Unesco

PUTRAJAYA, Dec 21 (Bernama) -- Deputy Prime Minister Tan Sri Muhyiddin Yassin on Tuesday launched the website for the Malaysian National Commission for Unesco at the Education Ministry here.

Muhyiddin, who is also the Education Minister and president of the Malaysian National Commission for Unesco, launched the website in conjunction with the 36th general meeting of the commission at the ministry.

The website functions as a link to all visitors within the country or abroad to learn about the various activities of the commission.

By showing the activities and programmes initiated by the commission, it was hoped that the creation of the commission would be exposed at the national, regional and international levels.

The website has several important sections namely the "NatCom Profile", "NatCom Structure", "Permanent Sub-Committe", "Malaysian Permanent Delegation to Unesco", "Programme and Activities", "Services" and "Gallery".

Earlier, Muhyiddin received a courtesy call from the Indian Road Transport and Highway Minister, Kamal Nath at his office at the Education Ministry.

Nath arrived at about 2pm and the meeting lasted for half-an-hour, and he was also expected to have a meeting with Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak this afternoon.

Nath, who arrived yesterday, is on a three-day working visit to this country.

-- BERNAMA

We provide (subscription-based) news coverage in our Newswire service.