The last three months of 2015 saw a diverse range of activities from the UNESCO Bangkok office spotlighted in local and regional media, including the release of “From Insult to Inclusion,” the first regional review of bullying on the basis of sexual orientation and gender identity in Asia-Pacific. This period also saw the launch of the “Mobile Learning for Out-Of-School Children” initiative, a partnership between UNESCO, Microsoft and True to benefit learners at the Thai-Myanmar border through ICT, as well as the Asia Pacific Meeting on Education 2030, where stakeholders from around the region laid out immediate actions to be taken to advance the global education agenda in this region.
